

Sunday, March 8, 2026 – Dr. Mark Stechschulte MD, a retired gastroenterologist, presents Tracing the History of Medicine in Dublin, Ohio: An examination of five community physicians and the common health concerns, illnesses, and health crises Dublin faced from its founding until the mid-1960s.

<https://events.columbuslibrary.org/event/15445864>

Sunday, April 12, 2026 – Dr. Sarah K Douglas PhD, a senior lecturer at The Ohio State University, presents The American Revolution: How a fledgling Continental Army grew, adapted, and persevered to win America's independence.

<https://events.columbuslibrary.org/event/15446903>

Sunday May 10, 2026 – Dan Sullivan, Executive Director of the Memorial Tournament, and Dave Shedloski, Editor of The Memorial magazine, team up to present 50th Anniversary of the Memorial Tournament: Key moments in tournament history and Jack Nicklaus' inspiration behind creating Muirfield Village Golf Club.

<https://events.columbuslibrary.org/event/15446966>

Sunday, June 14, 2026 – Kathleen Fulmer Waller, past regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) Ann Simpson Davis Chapter, presents Honoring Our Patriot Ancestors: A brief history of the DAR including contributions of the Ann Simpson Davis Chapter and highlights of other local patriots.

<https://events.columbuslibrary.org/event/15447004>

Sunday, July 12, 2026 – David Gerhardt, veteran and author of Vietnam: The Last Combat Marines, presents The Incredible Story of Winifred Breegle: A naval cryptographer from 1944 until 1949.

<https://events.columbuslibrary.org/event/15447028>

Sunday, August 9, 2026 – Heather Miller, Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA) Coordinator for the Wyandotte Nation, presents The Legacy and Learnings of Wyandot Removal: An intertwined history of the Wyandot and Dublin, Ohio. (*Wyandotte refers to the present-day tribal nation in Oklahoma, while Wyandot refers to the tribe and its peoples at the time of their settlement in Ohio.)

<https://events.columbuslibrary.org/event/15447050>

Sunday, September 13, 2026 – Kevin Wood, a professional Lincoln portrayer, presents Abraham Lincoln: A New Birth of Freedom. Enjoy hearing a first-hand historical account, from Abraham Lincoln himself, of his childhood on the frontier through the Civil War.

<https://events.columbuslibrary.org/event/15447064>

Sunday, October 11, 2026 – Becky Schisler, founder and owner of the Dublin Ghost Walk, presents Stories from 15 years of Dublin Ghost Walks. Plus, following the presentation, join for a visit to one of Dublin's most haunted locations.

<https://events.columbuslibrary.org/event/15470511>