

The Legacy and Learning of Wyandot Removal

Sunday, August 9, 2026 – Heather Miller, Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA) Coordinator for the Wyandotte Nation, presents The Legacy and Learnings of Wyandot Removal: An intertwined history of the Wyandot and Dublin, Ohio. (*Wyandotte refers to the present-day tribal nation in Oklahoma, while Wyandot refers to the tribe and its peoples at the time of their settlement in Ohio.)

<https://events.columbuslibrary.org/event/15447050>

Abraham Lincoln: A New Birth of Freedom

Sunday, September 13, 2026 – Kevin Wood, a professional Lincoln portrayer, presents Abraham Lincoln: A New Birth of Freedom. Enjoy hearing a first-hand historical account, from Abraham Lincoln himself, of his childhood on the frontier through the Civil War.

<https://events.columbuslibrary.org/event/15447064>

Stories from 15 years of Dublin Ghost Walks

Sunday, October 11, 2026 – Becky Schisler, founder and owner of the Dublin Ghost Walk, presents Stories from 15 years of Dublin Ghost Walks. Plus, following the presentation, join for a visit to one of Dublin's most haunted locations.

<https://events.columbuslibrary.org/event/15470511>

Thaddeus Kosciuszko

Sunday, November 8, 2026 – Chris Hariasz PhD, President of the Kosciuszko Foundation Ohio Chapter, presents Thaddeus Kosciuszko: Who is this Polish patriot and what is his connection to Dublin, Ohio?

<https://events.columbuslibrary.org/event/15921373>